Completion Of MS Degree Requirements

You may find it useful to fill this form as you proceed towards a CIS MS degree. Please print and attach this form with your application for advanced degree which needs to be turned in the first two weeks of the semester when you wish to graduate.

Breadth Requirements: List one and only one course from each group below.

1. (THEORY List one of the following CISC 601, CISC 604, CISC 621):
2. (SYSTEMS and NETWORKS List one of the following CISC 650, CISC 662, CISC 663, or CISC 672):
3. (SOFTWARE List one of the following CISC 640, CISC 675 or CISC 681):
4. (INFORMATION List one of the following CISC 636, CISC 637, CISC 642, CISC 683, or CISC684):

Note: Either CISC601 or CISC621 must be taken.

If you fulfilled the breadth requirements by some other course, please attach the graduate committee approval.

800 –level courses (CISC courses only and should not include credit for independent study, research or master's thesis). Please list the 3 courses that will be used to fulfill this requirement.

1.
2.
3.

Elective Courses: Please list 3 more courses that will be used to complete the MS requirements. If any of these is a non CISC graduate course, please attach the letter/email that granted you approval to use that course for your MS degree. Note that any course used for a breadth requirement or for 800-level above cannot be used as an elective.

1.
2.
3.

CISC 890 Courses: Please list the sections (or topic name; e.g., Networks, AI) and the semesters you took and passed them. One of these courses must be SIGNewGrad.

1.
2.
3.

Please note that any exceptions must be approved by the graduate committee. The approval must be obtained PRIOR to your taking the course.